THE SENIOR CLASS CENTRAL HIGH NEWARK, N.J. PRESENTS THE "1979" COG'N' PEN

"PRIDE IN OURSELVES"

S. Watson, S. Tyson and Mr. Moore

Students take 'pride' in Central

By J. GREGORY CLEMONS

Pride is alive and well and thriving in Newark's Central High School.

"Project Pride," that is.

The project, the brainchild of the Newark Board of Education, was introduced in the high school last year and 25 students have become involved to make it work.

Sharvella Tyson, a 16-year-old senior and program treasurer, said it is a program designed to show pride within the school and community.

"Since the program began," she said, "I've noticed a more positive attitude from my fellow students.

"I remember when I was a freshman," Tyson recalled. "The school situation was not that good, but now I can see a difference. Everyone seems to take pride in the school."

Participants have been displaying posters calling upon students to take responsibility for their academic work and to keep their alma mater clean, as well as publicizing other school programs and sports events.

Tyson said an assembly program on Project Pride was well received and, from that, student interest in the program increased.

A similar nationwide program is Rev. Jesse Jackson's Project Excel, which began in Chicago and has since spread to several high schools in cities such as Los Angeles and Kansas City.

"This is a good program and here at Central we are trying to show that it is a school that can be better,"

Tyson said.

Principal James Moore said, "I think Project Pride is a fantastic idea.

"Here you have students who are enthusiastic about it." he said. "They liked the idea, pushed for it and made it work."

Moore called the program "a success" that has helped develop other programs for the students with surrounding institutions such as Rutgers-Newark and the New Jersey Institute of Technology.

the New Jersey Institute of Technology.

A "major change" since the program began,
Moore noted, has been the reduction of vandalism.

"This year Central High School has to be one of the lowest, if not the lowest site, on record to suffer from vandalism out of the city's 97 schools," he said proudly.

"The kids are really turned on to Project Pride, and I am really glad to see them adopt the attitude, "This is our school, so let's take care of it.""

The meet took place on 2/17/79 at MX Shabazz H.S. Maurice won his first match of the meet and advanced to the consolation wrestle off. Only after a very close match for Consolation place, was Maurice eliminated.

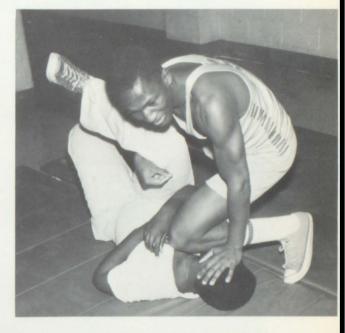

The team trained hard all season and represented CHS in every meet. Darryl Williams, captain, was a "sparkplug" in the training effort.

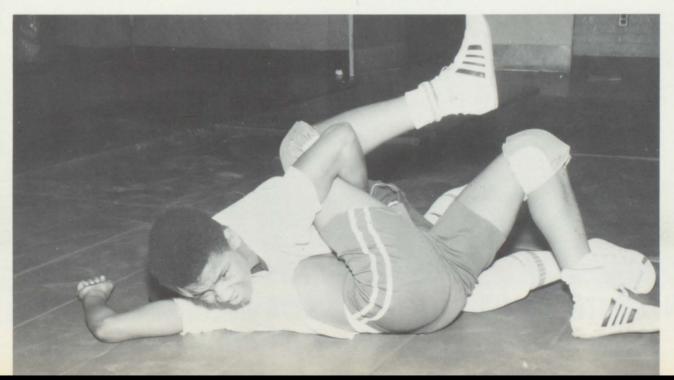

The team has tremendous potential and next season will bring some trophies to Central.

The Swimming Team of Central High for the year of 1979 consisted of a group of individuals who were determined, persistent and courageous.

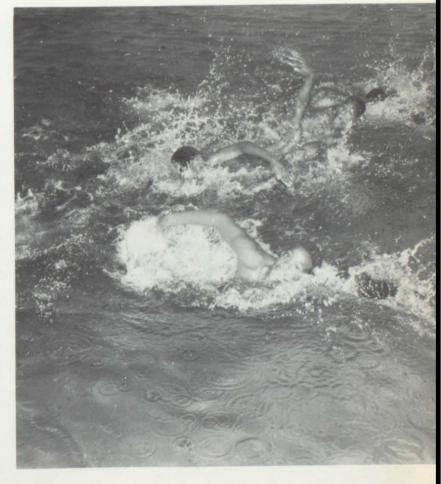

They displayed their innate, forever present and consistent will and desire to represent CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL, and that they did magnificently, winning the city championship. It was a joyous, successful, stimulating and very inspiring season. All of us are looking forward to next year, the year after and the many that will follow.

SOUND & LIGHTS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1979

When children come of school age . . . They face a whole new world . . .

For they take leave of mother's arms . . . that round them tightly curled . . .

They learn through trial and error . . . what may be right or wrong . . .

Yes, at a very early age . . . they learn to get along . . .

New faces and new methods . . new personalities . . .

These doors have to be opened . . and they must find the keys . . .

God love these little people . . guide them along the way . . .

So they can shoulder troubles . . . that happen day by day . . .

The start is most important . . . on that you can depend . . .

Start them right and chances are . . . they'll have a happy end.
